and progress. It also strives to provide humanistic culture and encourage constant understanding, and available. Being a student from abroad, who speaks a different language and comes from a very different culture and context, it is very hard for me to understand Latin America, meeting new people, and making new friends. In the beginning, all of the academical and social activities help me to keep in mind that we are all the same. Thank you all.

Academic Information

Many places of the University are pleasant to visit. Besides the main university building, the Library, the University Center, the University Club, and the University bookstore, there are many other buildings with facilities that students can use.

Services and Academic Activities

The University offers a wide range of academic activities, including seminars, workshops, and conferences. Students can participate in these activities to enhance their knowledge and skills.

Cost of living and accommodations

Exchange students are usually housed in room rentals offered by Peruvian families. They may also be housed in student boarding houses with other exchange students. The cost of living in Peru can be relatively affordable.

Tourist Attractions

Peru, the Andean nation, is a place of great historical, cultural, and natural splendor. It is home to ancient civilizations, magnificent cities, and beautiful landscapes. Visitors can enjoy Machu Picchu, the ancient Incan city; Cusco, the capital of the Incan Empire; and Lima, the capital city, with its beautiful colonial architecture and vibrant nightlife.

Peru is a very, very rich country. The culture, the music, the people, the food… everything is good.
