

University Consortium Fellowship Luncheon

Wednesday, December 3, 1:00 hours, 2025

Parque Cruz del Sur Cafeteria

Good afternoon.

On behalf of the Universidad de Lima, it is my great pleasure to welcome you to this year's University Consortium Fellowship Luncheon.

Almost 30 years ago, then rectors of the Pontificia Universidad Católica del Perú, Universidad Peruana Cayetano Heredia, Universidad del Pacífico, and Universidad de Lima shared a vision. They made a commitment to advancing quality in higher education, expanding access to knowledge, and promoting research for the benefit of our country.

From that shared commitment, the University Consortium was born.

Today, we are here to celebrate this enduring partnership. To continue making history. To share this journey together. And to reaffirm the greater purpose that unites us all.

Because whenever there is a genuine commitment to creating positive change, there are always leaders and professionals willing to join. We are here because we believe in that mission, and because we have embraced the responsibility of carrying it forward.

May that shared purpose continue to inspire us each day and give us the determination to move forward amid the challenges and transformations of an ever-changing local, global, and technological landscape.

Let us continue creating, researching, and growing together.
